EnviroKidsFest '05: On Thursday, April 28, 2005, join the City of Scottsdale at the 2nd Annual EnviroKidsFest '05; a free, interactive environmental event that will be held at WestWorld of Scottsdale. EnviroKidsFest '05 has been designed to be age-appropriate, interactive and complement the Arizona State science curriculum standards. This year, 1,000 fourth graders from the Scottsdale, Paradise Valley and Cave Creek school districts will participate in activities that focus on Recycling, Wildlife Preservation, Water and Energy Conservation. The day will be split into two, 2-hour activity sessions, plus a free healthy lunch for kids...and volunteers!!

IT'S FUN FOR EVERYONE!

As a volunteer for EnviroKidsFest '05, you will be an integral part of the team. Whether helping the kids with activities or working behind the scenes, at EnviroKidsFest '05, volunteers always have fun!

If you are interested, please complete the volunteer form below as soon as possible—we will make every effort to accommodate your preferences. Final details on your specific position, time schedule, parking, etc., will be sent to you approximately two weeks prior to the event.
